'Dangerous' bridge injures pensioners

Rain doesn't dampen Christmas spirits

A CHILD'S challenge to a lightsabre dual did not frighten a soggy Star Wars stormtrooper at Witney's Christmas light switch-on on Friday. The town centre celebrations saw hundreds of residents enjoy live music, stalls, and an appearance from Father Christmas, their spirits not dampened by pouring rain. Mayor of Witney Jim King took over the honours previously undertaken by Prime Minister and Witney MP David Cameron of launching the festivities. See page 3 for full story.

A BRIDGE in Witney has been dubbed 'dangerous' by residents and leaders calling for repairs after a series of falls and injuries have been reported.

At least three people have slipped and fallen on the bridge crossing Madley Brook near King George's Field in the last eight months.

They include a cyclist, pensioner and walker.

Witney resident Richard MacKenzie, 36, said his wife Jackie fell on the bridge and hit her head in spring this year.

He said: "It's ridiculous. It's not an accident waiting to happen, it's an accident that has already happened."

The bridge sits near Kingsfield Crescent leading through a wooded area near Court Gardens, and is one of the main cycle routes to Witney town centre.

Mr MacKenzie said he filed a complaint calling on Oxfordshire County Council to fix an anti-slip surface and repair the vandalised fencing in October.

But the council told the Guardian the bridge is not theirs to repair.

Spokesperson for OCC, Owen

By Alex Ballinger

Morton said: "We've looked into this, and the footbridge has not been adopted as public highway and is not therefore the council's responsibility."

Elderly resident, Jenny Wakefield Long, who lives near the bridge, slipped on it and hurt her arm.

It's not an accident waiting to happen, it has already happened

She said on Facebook: "I went flying on the bridge."

"I grabbed the rail to save myself and wrenched my arm quite badly."

Mr MacKenzie said he will now be trying to find out who owns the bridge and who is responsible for maintaining it.

He reported the bridge to town councillor Chris Holliday, who saw someone slip and fall from their bike cycling across the bridge while he visited the site.

Primark to stay in Oxford city centre

JOBS are saved after Primark announced they have found an interim store in Oxford to use between the closure of their existing store and their new store opening as part of the Westgate redevelopment.

Oxford's Westgate Shopping

By Loughlan Campbell

Centre is in the process of a £440 million renovation.

The centre is partly shutting at the end of January and fully closing in spring.

Primark, whose store in the shopping centre is set to close on February 13 next year, has now found a temporary store on Queen Street, where they will remain until their new, bigger store opens with the rest of the new shopping centre in November 2017.

A Primark spokesperson said: "Primark has endeavoured to find an interim solution and is pleased to advise that it has secured a small temporary store on the high street which will open at the start of February."

"The temporary store, which will mainly offer a selection of men's and women's products, will trade until the new Primark store opens in the redeveloped shopping centre."

Primark is Westgate's biggest shop, employing 193 staff and the Dublin-based clothes retailer are still finalising how many staff will be in the interim store.

In October this year, the Guardian reported that Primark had been unsuccessful in their search for a new store and that staff had been offered the chance to apply the 201 roles at their Banbury store, which opened last month.

City council leader Bob Price, said: "This is great news and clearly shows that we have a vibrant shopping experience here in Oxford and that they're trying hard to keep their business afloat in the city."

"It makes sense for them to continue their custom and it also shows the impact that Primark has had for customers here in Oxford."

Professor Jonathan Reynolds of the University of Oxford, who specialises in retail marketing, said: "This shows the resolve of Primark to keep the continuity of their custom with Oxford shoppers."

"However I don't know if it will do them a great deal of good in the long run as there are big concerns about the business trade in the city due to the constant Roadworks and the shift to online shopping."

More than 100 new shops and 25 restaurants – including a Curzon Cinema – will be part of the new development in Expens Road.

A two-storey underground car park with between 900 and 1,100 spaces is in the process of being built, with the previous car park having been demolished in February this year.

Shooting arrests

ABINGDON: Two more men have been arrested as part of the investigation into the murder of Kerry Reeves in Abingdon last month.

A 45-year-old man from Harrow was arrested last Tuesday on suspicion of assisting an offender, while a 33-year-old man from Oxford was arrested last Wednesday for the same offence and for encouraging/assisting in the commission of murder believing it will be committed.

Both men have been released on bail until December 28.

It comes after Miss Reeves, 26, was shot at a house in Thornhill Walk, off Northcourt Road, at around 8.20pm on November 3.

She died from her injuries in hospital two days later.

Two men – Billy Johnson, 20, from Ripon Court in Corby, and Charles Noble, 20, from Kempton Avenue in Ealing – were charged with murder on November 11, and are due to appear at Oxford Crown Court on February 8.

Senior investigating officer Det Ch Insp Mike Lynch of the Major Crime Unit said: "I would urge anyone who has specific information about the weapon used in Kerry's murder to contact police immediately."

"It is vital that we recover the weapon to aid our investigation and to safeguard the public."

Dr's charity boxing bout

A DIDCOT-BASED doctor and dad-of-two will be stepping into the ring this Saturday to raise money for a mental health charity.

Psychiatrist Andrew Molodyski, 42, who lives in Wantage and works in Didcot, will pull no punches at South Moreton Boxing Club while raising money for Oxfordshire charity Restore.

Dr Molodyski has received the backing of Prime Minister David Cameron who donated a signed bottle of port that will be raffled off to raise cash.

The doctor who works at Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust, said: "Doctors are generally opposed to boxing because of the injuries it can cause."

"I decided to do something to get people to realise that mental health affects us all. 'The stigma around these conditions is enormous.'"

Dr Molodyski, who has been an amateur boxer for around five years, will be taking on Gary Summerfield at the event which will feature nine other fights.

Chief executive of Oxford-based Restore, Martin Realey, said: "Andrew has been actively involved in our Didcot-based Fleet Meadow Recovery Group and has seen the benefits social activities can have on people's mental health."

"Boxing is a sport where no-one can hide – it's not like a team game where you can rely on the strength and support of others when you are struggling."

Restore provide rehabilitation, employment and training support for people suffering schizophrenia, bipolar disorder, depression and anxiety.

The fight will take place at South Moreton Boxing Club in Hall Farm with doors opening at 6.30pm.

Lighting the way to Christmas Day

Call to fix broken bridge after series of injuries

• From front page

Councillor Holliday said: "It does need to be sorted. It's very slippery."

"The fencing needs to be replaced as well. It got broken down, possibly by vandals, and hasn't been fixed."

"We don't want someone falling into the brook below."

Mr MacKenzie said he had already heard of people falling into the brook below because there are no fences.

He added: "I want to see a full apology from Oxfordshire County Council to the elderly lady."

"If they had responded as soon as I made the complaint in October these accidents might not have happened."

THE festive season is under way in Witney following the town's Christmas lights switch in Market Square on Friday.

Despite the pouring rain residents turned out to enjoy live music, stalls and a ceremony to turn on the Christmas lights.

Mayor of Witney Jim King stepped up to do the honours.

Councillor King said: "Everyone I spoke to enjoyed it."

"If it hadn't been for the rain there would have been a bigger turnout but there were still a lot of people."

Prime Minister and Witney MP David Cameron had switched on the lights in recent years but the mantle fell to Cllr King this year, who first helped organise the event more than 10 years ago.

He added: "It was getting very expensive to have David Cameron turning on the lights with all the security. It was really good to be able to do it."

Father Christmas was on hand to meet youngsters and take orders for the big day.

This year's event was organised by the Witney Rotary Club, the Witney Lions and the Witney Round table with support from Witney Town Council.

President of the rotary club Ashley Farmer said: "I am very grateful to all those who have helped with the organisation and to those who have helped financially."

The evening was supported by The Blue Boar pub in Market Square.

General manager of the pub Russell Manning said: "By sponsoring our town's Christmas lights we're hoping that Witney's shining Christmas message will light the path for thousands of friends, families and visitors."

The lights were switched on at 6.30pm to kick off the celebrations that included a barbeque, mulled wine and a fun fair for youngsters.

The rotary club also introduced a new feature, the Rotary Tree of Light, where residents could light up the tree in memory of a loved one for a small donation to local charities.

Chairman of Witney Conservative Future Liam Walker said: "It's really good to see local organisations pull together to bring this event back to the town."

"Despite the slight downpour it was a great evening of live music, fairground rides and lots of smiling faces."

Cotswold tourism

WEST OXON: A new partnership announced on Friday between West Oxfordshire District Council (WODC) and the Cotswolds Tourism Partnership aims to boost tourism in the area.

The partnership is a group of public and private organisations looking to promote the Cotswolds as a holiday destination.

Recycling survey

WEST OXON: An online survey about household waste and recycling collections in the district ends on Monday.

It aims to help West Oxfordshire District Council plan any changes to its collection policy after its current contract ends in 2017.

The survey asks residents about the containers they use, the materials collected for recycling and how they use the service.

It can be found at westoxon.gov.uk/binsurvey

Wantage school takes top prizes in public speaking competition

KING Alfred's Academy in Wantage took home top prizes for the third year in a row at the annual Rotary International Youth Speaks competition last month.

The event on Wednesday, November 18, at King Alfred's sixth form centre in Portway, pitted the academy against Faringdon Community College.

Four teams from the Academy took part.

English teacher and coach Kate Wigley said: "The students across all the teams were a very enthusiastic group and a pleasure to work with."

"All the teams did well. It's all really good experience."

Students delivered presentations in front of an audience of their parents and teachers while facing the daunting prospect of a panel of judges.

Presentations were judged on the speaker's ability to present and develop a topic.

The winning intermediate age group (11 to 13 year olds) were Lily Bunting, Lauren Stevenson and Rebecca Spiers with their topic of 'a Green 2016'.

Also taking home a trophy were the senior team (14 to 17 year olds) made up of Hannah Hayward, Maddie Lewis-Hughes and Clare St George with the topic of 'Mental Health Matters'.

The winners will compete in the district finals in February.

Free parking to stay say council

By Alex Ballinger

A COUNCIL boss has pledged to keep free parking in Vale of White Horse despite warnings from officers that a parking deficit of £700,000 could build up by 2019.

Officers at South Oxfordshire (SODC) and neighbouring Vale of White Horse District Councils warned if parking charges are not increased deficits could rise to £134,000 for SODC and £700,000 for Vale.

Vale of White Horse District Council leader Matthew Barber said Vale would not increase parking fees, while South Oxfordshire District Council's leader John Cotton said there may be a 'modest increase' to combat any deficit.

SODC and Vale councils are both set to review their parking policies today and tomorrow respectively.

Mr Barber, said: "We won't be increasing the parking fees.

free parking, including in Wantage, Abingdon and Farindgon town centres.

Cllr Cotton said: "We may put in a modest increase. Not very much, only about 10p."

"We charge considerably less than neighbouring districts. "We want the burden of car parks to fall on those using it, not on those paying tax."

"We don't run our car parks for a profit."

SODC offers free parking in some of its car parks, and charges 50p for the first hour in others, meaning it's deficit would be smaller.

A report published by SODC last week, also by John Backley, said: "If no changes are made to the level of fees and charges (and assuming levels of usage stay the same) then the car park account will have a projected income of £64,294 in 2015/16 but over the five-year period the account will produce a cumulative deficit of £134,863."

Both council meetings will be held at their joint headquarters in Milton Park.

SODC's is due to take place at 6pm tonight and Vale's is due to be held at 10am tomorrow.

"The estimated cumulative deficit in 2018/19 will be £706,504."

Currently all car parks run by Vale council offer two hours

free parking, including in Wantage, Abingdon and Farindgon town centres.

Cllr Cotton said: "We may put in a modest increase. Not very much, only about 10p."

Big Christmas Sing

OXFORD: Around 500 primary school pupils from across Oxfordshire joined forces for a charity Christmas concert on Tuesday and yesterday.

The Big Christmas Sing involved 21 primary schools at Oxford Town Hall in St Aldate's belting out festive songs.

It was organised by Oxfordshire County Council's music service and Christian Aid, with money raised donated to the charity.

TVP gypsy review

OXON: More needs to be done to integrate with gypsy communities in the Thames Valley, a police report has advised.

Police published the results of an independent review into Gypsy, Traveller and Roma (GTR) policies on Tuesday.

It said more needs to be done to communicate and encourage police to employ them.

The review was commissioned by Thames Valley Police in June 2014 and findings were published on Tuesday.

It was led by Margaret Greenfields from Buckinghamshire New University, Mark Watson from Cheshire Constabulary and Police Constable Jim Davies of the Gypsy, Roma and Traveller Police Association.

Professor Greenfields said: "TVP has fully accepted the best-practice recommendations."

Black friday flops as crowds stay at home

OXFORDSHIRE'S shopping centres were quieter than predicted on Black Friday, with the lure of deals not coaxing people out at the same rate as last year.

Shoppers were pleasantly surprised to find parking and traffic much improved on last year.

Bicester Village pledged not to hold Black Friday sales but its shopping hours were extended.

Steve Hunt, 32, from Worcester, was at the outlet centre at around 11am.

He said: "It's not been anywhere near as bad as we were expecting. The traffic was absolutely fine."

The dad-of-two added: "I hate shopping anyway, that's why I'm stood out here watching the tram. I can't wait to leave already."

Jamie Kennedy, 29, from Witney, was also shopping at Bicester Village.

He said: "I was a bit put off because it's Black Friday but it doesn't seem as bad as last year. We're quite pleased."

"We are not here for anything specific. Just to get some Christmas stuff."

Spokesperson for the shopping outlet Miranda Markham said on Friday: "It is currently busy but very manageable."

"Traditionally the final pay day weekend before Christmas is always busy so peak traffic measures are in place."

The first Friday after Thanksgiving sees shops promote sales to kick-start Christmas shopping.

It is a fairly new UK trend following the American tradition, but UK shoppers spent over £800 million last year and roads around Bicester Village were gridlocked most of the day.

Oxford's Templars Shopping Centre in Cowley was also surprisingly quiet despite some shops advertising Black Friday sales.

Store manager of Intersport DW sports shop, Jo Nice, said: "Our target is 300 per cent more than a normal Friday."

"People were coming in as soon as we opened the door. We didn't know what to expect."

"It was very good for the company last year."

TK Maxx also in Templars opened an hour earlier.

Assistant store manager Shawn Dudley said: "It's a difficult one. We're still very amateurish about it. We don't really know what to expect."

"About six people were outside when we opened."

Lee Bowden, 45, from North Hinksey, was shopping in the TK Maxx store. He said: "I thought it was going to be bad but it's not around here. Last year was bad. I was out shopping for an iPad but this year seems alright."

Hundreds brave the wind for Head of the River race

ROWERS battled against winds of up to 50mph along the River Thames in Wallingford on Sunday at the annual Head of the River event.

Around 800 spectators watched oars sparring with 263 crews facing off against each other in the water.

Oxford Brookes University Rowing Club were the runaway winners, grabbing the spoils in the Division One 10.45am race and in the 1.30pm Division 2 race.

Rowers came from all over the UK, with University of London Boat Club and Newcastle University in the top 10.

Rachael Haycock, who organised it and raced for Wallingford Rowing Club, said: "We had our doubts heading into the day if it would go ahead. But only 30 crews pulled out so we went ahead and it proved to be so worthwhile."

She added: "I was in a boat with the other girls and we just decided to grit our teeth and give it a go."

Hospital heating project 'vital' despite six months of Headington roadworks

By Alex Ballinger

CITY bosses have aired concerns of the impact six months of roadworks could have on Headington next year for Oxford's hospitals to install new pipes as part of a £14.8 million energy project.

The plans, called the Hospital Energy Project, were announced on Monday and would see new boilers installed and hot water pipes laid between the John Radcliffe Hospital in Headington and the Churchill Hospital in Oxford.

The 18-month project by Oxfordshire University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust could see six months of roadworks including some closures.

A press conference was held at the John Radcliffe on Monday where local councillors voiced worries.

Oxfordshire county councillor for Headington and Quarry, Roz Smith, said: "A lot of residents feel angry about not being informed about this earlier."

City councillor Ruth Wilkinson said: "Parking is a really big issue in Headington. How will residents get to know what arrangements have been made about that?"

The scheme to improve the efficiency of heating the two hospitals aims to save £1.1m.

Director of planning and information at the hospital trust, Andrew Stevens, said: "The longer term benefits will have a great pay back."

• (From right) Ashley Malin and Mike Cooke from Vital Energi, Andrew Stevens, Claire Hennessey and Mark Bristow from Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust

"It's important in terms of the savings but we are also part of the wider community and we wanted to improve our carbon footprint."

"We know it's going to be disruptive and we know it's going to be difficult for local residents but we hope the benefits will outweigh that."

Work on the scheme has already begun at the John Radcliffe site.

It is due to be finished by November 2016.

The energy link pipe will run along Woodlands Road, Sandfield Road, London Road, Latimer Road, All Saints Road, Stapleton Road, Old Road ends at Churchill Hospital in Headington.

Some of these roads would have to be closed for the pipes to be fitted and others may be partly shut and controlled by traffic lights.

The trust's senior estates operational maintenance manager, Claire Hennessey, said: "Improving the infrastructure is vital to patient care. We need to make sure the heating and cooling systems in the hospital are working."

London-based contractors Vital Energi is installing the pipes.

Regional director of Vital, Mike Cooke said: "It's very similar to projects we've run elsewhere. This is a very innovative scheme."

Working hours for the project are set to be between 8am and 5.30pm weekdays although Vital have said they may work weekends if the project falls behind.

Band room named after couple

THE owners of a bookshop in Wantage's Regent Arcade have been celebrated after donating over £10,000 to Wantage Silver Band.

Regent Furniture and Books owners Sue and Phil Mudway donated the proceeds from a bric-a-brac stall in their shop to fund instruments for children to learn music with.

To thank them the band renamed a practice room at their base in Garston Close 'The Mudway Room'.

Bandmaster Eileen Sykes said: "We are so grateful for the continuing generosity and support from the Mudway family."

The couple cut the ribbon at a ceremony on November 28.

Group calls for help in bid to stop pool demolition

A COMMUNITY group is calling on residents to help halt the demolition of Temple Cowley Pools, which could be knocked down later this month.

Developers Catalyst Housing want to demolish the site in Temple Road to build a mix of 48 houses and flats on the land.

Agents Savills submitted a notification of intentions to demolish the site to Oxford City Council in October.

A proposal to keep the pools and its leisure centre open was turned down by the city council's City Executive Board last December.

Community group Save Temple Cowley Pools (Save TCP) opposed the plans and have launched a fresh plea for residents to write to the city council to encourage them to halt the demolition.

Save TCP claim Catalyst have told them that the demolition could take place this month if the city council decide whether or not approval is required for the demolition.

A statement from Save TCP said:

"We don't think it makes sense to demolish an 'Asset of Community Value' when the planning application to replace it just with housing hasn't even been submitted, let alone approved."

"If the demolition goes ahead, the council will deliberately be destroying the only public diving pool in the county, along with the pool and other facilities, leaving an area with nothing."

Since the notification of intentions was submitted, 24 objections have been sent in by residents.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps."

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. "The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated." So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Oxford Green Fair

OXFORD: Renowned Oxford author Phillip Pullman will open the city's 35th annual Green Fair at Oxford Town Hall in St Aldate's on Saturday.

Around 100 stalls will be present alongside live music and a Green Father Christmas.

Pullman (pictured) will give an opening speech at 11am with the fair open to the public from 10.30pm to 4.30pm.

Sexual Assault

OXFORD: A 25-year-old Oxford man has been arrested and bailed after an 18-year-old woman was touched inappropriately at a kebab van in St Aldate's on Sunday.

The victim was at McCoys kebab van around 4am when a man touched her.

There were a number of people there at the time and police would like to speak to anyone who saw the incident.

The 25-year-old is on police bail until December 29.

Perververt with nearly 25,000 images of children is jailed

A PERVERT from Oxford with almost 25,000 indecent images of children stored on his computer was jailed for 18 months on Monday.

Wai Yin Tse, of Cromwell Way in Kidlington, interrupted the judge from the dock as he was sentenced at Oxford Crown

By Loughlan Campbell

Court to three years imprisonment, half of which is to be served on licence.

Judge Patrick Eccles said: "The images you shared over the course of 22 months included a huge number of indecent images of children, just short of 25,000 images in total.

"Some of these images were of very young children and some seemed to be in discernible pain."

At this point, Yin Tse said: "I would not want to see any children in pain."

The 43-year-old was convicted by a unanimous jury of nine charges on September 29 after a four-day trial.

He was charged on November 15 last year for seven counts of making indecent photographs of children, one count of attempting to make indecent photographs of children and one count of possessing extreme pornographic videos.

The counts included making 24,898 indecent photos of children.

Judge Eccles also stated the images would have been 'easily accessible' for anyone to share and pointed towards the fact that Yin Tse lived with his sister and his three-year-old niece, who would have had access to the computer.

Thames Valley Police Detective Constable Emma Thompson said: "I am pleased that Tse has been given this sentence today. Thames Valley Police always investigates crimes of this nature thoroughly and today's conviction is the result of some hard work by our investigation team."

During the sentencing, Judge Eccles gave Yin Tse a sexual harm prevention order, to be in place for 10 years, and ordered him to be listed on the sexual offender's register for life.

The judge said the fact that the offender shared the images he stored through file sharing websites was a 'significant feature' in regards to the sentencing as it meant the images he shared were in the public domain for others to share.

Yin Tse was arrested by police on August 30 in 2013.

The offences were between November 29, 2011, and August 30, 2013.

Police seized his computer and external storage devices and found tens of thousands of indecent photographs and videos of children.

The computer is set to be destroyed after family photos are recovered.

Brain injury sufferer who is supported by charity bids to save it from cuts

A DIDCOT man who survived major brain surgery has launched a plea to halt cuts to the charity which supports him through recovery.

Andrew Baker, 27, has been helped by brain trauma charity Headway Oxford for three and a half years with treatments including physiotherapy.

He suffered a pre-natal brain injury at birth and could not talk until he was five years old, before another head injury at primary school left him needing surgery.

He said: "It would be absolutely devastating if they had to close due to these cuts, not just as they provide my services, but the fact is that Headway is a lifeline for so many people under its care."

Kennington-based Headway Oxford is among the Oxfordshire charities and services under threat from proposed cuts from Oxfordshire County Council, who are looking to save around £50m on top of £292m by 2018.

Mr Baker set up his own fundraising charity Play2Give in 2007, and works in Sainsbury's in Didcot's Orchard Centre.

He added: "Headway is uniquely special in the services it provides."

Cheerleaders embrace naked acrobatic antics for calendar

• The cheerleading team in South Parks (all pictures by Steve Urwin)

• Jessica Denning showing off her skills

AN Oxford Brookes University cheerleading team tackled nude gymnastics for a photoshoot to launch a 2016 calendar for the first time.

The Oxford Brookes Bluebirds calendar is to be released next week after two months of work.

The women and men strut their skills doing the splits on the mantelpiece of Headington Hill Hall, balancing acts in the beer garden of Cowley Retreat, and posing in South Parks in front of Oxford's skyline.

The team's head of fundraising Georgia Smith, 20, said: "It was so much fun. It really brought the team together."

The Oxford Brookes Bluebirds contacted an Oxford photographer in October to pitch their idea of a calendar to fundraise for the team.

The squad needs to raise money to rent their practice room and pay for their coach.

Marston-based freelance photographer Steve Urwin said: "I've never done anything like this before. We've done some very interesting things with the locations."

"We wanted it to be about Oxford but also to show off their

By Alex Ballinger

cheerleading as well."

Mr Urwin is a former cheerleader for the club.

The 30-year-old added: "The team doesn't get as much attention as something like rugby."

Miss Smith, who is in her third year of studying economics, politics and international relations at Oxford Brookes, it had taken a lot of work but the team are looking forward to seeing the finished product.

She added: "We needed a way to raise money because we're completely underfunded. It had been talked about before but we just decided to do it."

"Everyone was on board."

The calendar will be officially launched next Thursday and 10 per cent of proceeds will go to charity ParaCheer International, which promotes cheerleading for people with disabilities.

It will be available via brookescheerleaders.bigcartel.com

Last month Oxford University women's and men's rugby team also ditched their kit and took to the pitch in their own nude calendar to raise money for charity.

Shooting centre fined over noise

THE owner of a Stadhampton hotel has been fined £1,500 after more than 40 complaints were made to South Oxfordshire District Council (SODC) about noise from clay pigeon shooting.

Jason Hunt, 51, of Bear Lane in Stadhampton, owns the Crazy Bear Hotel of the same address.

He pleaded guilty to two breaches of a noise abatement notice at Oxford Magistrates' Court on November 25.

The abatement notice was issued in January last year after complaints about noise from shooting held at the hotel since October 2013.

SODC cabinet member for waste, food safety, and environmental health, Tony Harbour, said: "We are very supportive of any business wishing to diversify and set up activities that attract more customers. However, they must not be to the detriment of the local area or impact those living near by."

After the notice was issued acoustic shelters were built at the site but more complaints were received.

Following Hunt's failure to comply SODC prosecuted him for the breaches.

Hunt pleaded not guilty in 2014 but later changed his plea. He was fined £750 for each breach of the notice, and ordered to pay a victim surcharge of £75 and £1,000 in costs.

Veteran map maker celebrated in county exhibition

AN OXFORD mapmaker who has been drawing maps for 50 years has had his work recognised by county leaders in a new exhibition.

Alun Jones, who celebrated his 88th birthday on Saturday, still draws maps by hand and has worked with the Campaign to Protect Rural England and the Oxford Preservation Trust to create around 90 maps in his lifetime.

By Alex Ballinger

Some of his work is now on display in Oxford's County Hall in New Road after an exhibition was opened by Oxfordshire County Council chairman John Sanders on Friday.

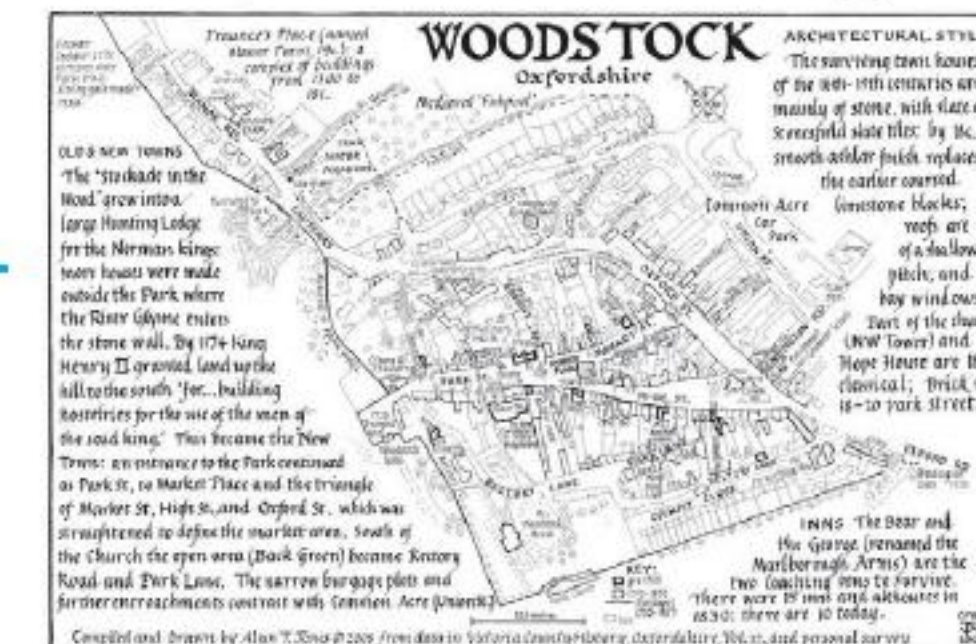

Mr Jones, who lives in Marston, said: "It's been like a career and a passion for me. I've always done the maps for free."

"I do enjoy it. The maps aren't just meant to be an exhibition. I draw them to be used. They're not just pieces of art."

The exhibition includes hand drawn maps of Oxfordshire's historic locations including towns, village, historic houses and gardens and even long distance walks.

Mr Jones, a retired lecturer, has lived in Oxford since 1941 when he attended the University of Oxford's Lincoln College.

He originally gained his map-making, or cartography, skills

• A map of Woodstock by Mr Jones

while studying classical archaeology.

The exhibition was arranged by Mr Jones' friend Chris Hawgood, who said: "I've known Alun for 45 years and he's one of the best friends a person could ask for."

"The maps Alun has drawn are important. They're works of art."

"It's a gift to the community and to Oxfordshire. In my opinion he doesn't get enough credit."

Discussions are underway to preserve the collection at either the Oxford University's Bodleian

Library or the Oxfordshire History Centre in Cowley.

Maps librarian at the Bodleian Library, Nick Millia, said at the opening of the exhibition: "Most map making is done on the computer these days, but Alun doesn't do that."

"He draws them by hand. They're unique."

The maps will be on show in County Hall's meeting room corridor until February 28.

Toast starts fire

FRINGFORD: A postman reported house fire in a village near Bicester on Friday when he heard the smoke alarm inside.

A fire engine from Bicester attended Main Road in Fringford at around 12.22pm.

As firefighters prepared to force entry the occupier arrived and unlocked the property.

The fire had been caused by toast left unattended under a lit grill and was quickly extinguished.

Police bosses 'delighted' at Osborne's cuts U-turn in wake of Paris terror

THAMES Valley Police leaders say they are delighted the Government have abandoned planned cuts to police budgets next year.

The Conservative leadership was expected to slash police funding for frontline services, but Chancellor of the Exchequer George Osborne last Wednesday announced a major U-turn during his Autumn Statement.

Following the Paris terror attacks in which 130 people died on November 13 as well as security threats in Belgium and across Europe this month, Mr Osborne announced in Parliament last Wednesday no cuts would be made to policing over the next year.

Thames Valley's Police and Crime Commissioner Anthony Stansfield said: "I am absolutely delighted that the very large cuts that were planned for policing have not gone ahead."

"I am pleased that senior politicians have listened and the adverse impact of the cuts has been recognised."

Chief Constable Francis Habgood previously said he was unsure how 'significant' cuts would impact Oxfordshire's policing and it was unclear how much would be taken from the police budget.

He added Thames Valley Police have saved £58 million in total over the last four years and £13m in 2015.

Ch Con Habgood said: "I am pleased to hear that the Chancellor has acknowledged the need to protect police services by deciding not to make further cuts to police budgets in the next year."

"Today is a good day for our communities and Thames Valley Police but we must also remember that we are still in times of austerity and we will continue to have some difficult choices to make about how allocate our resources according to local priorities."

"We will continue to ensure that we maximise every opportunity to prevent crime, protect the public and bring offenders to justice."

After gunmen and suicide bombers targeted venues across Paris, Prime Minister David Cameron also announced plans boosting funding for UK security services to hire 1,900 extra security and intelligence staff.

Mr Osborne said: "The government will protect overall police spending in real terms over the spending review period."

"This will provide funding to maintain overall police force budgets at current cash levels."

"The Government is taking steps to enable police officers to spend more time fighting crime."

Osborne's tax hike 'not likely to save services'

A RISE in council tax of almost four per cent is unlikely to save vital Oxfordshire services, a councillor has called.

During Chancellor George Osborne's Autumn Statement in the Houses of Parliament last Wednesday he announced local government authorities will be allowed to hike council tax by two per cent above the 1.9 per cent already permitted.

For the cheapest band A property in Oxford this could mean a 3.9 per cent rise of about £44 from £1,118.27 to £1,161.88.

And the extra cash created would have to be spent on adult social care services.

Mr Osborne said: "The truth we need to confront is this: many local authorities are not going to be able to meet growing social care needs unless they have new sources of funding. That, in the end, comes from the taxpayer."

"So in future those local authorities who are responsible for social care will be able to levy a new social care precept of up to two per cent on council tax."

Amid £342 million of cuts Oxfordshire County Council has to make by 2020, independent councillor Lynda Atkins warned even four per cent may not be enough.

Cllr Atkins said: "It seems very unlikely we would be able to protect these services with a four per cent increase so we're still calling for a 10 per cent increase which will be vital to save our services."

In October the Guardian revealed independent councillors including Cllr Atkins called for a referendum on whether to raise council tax by 10 to 15 per cent.

And last month Oxfordshire County Council voted in favour of lobbying central Government for a referendum to hike council tax by a percentage not yet decided.

But holding a referendum would cost £600,000 to £800,000.

Broadband rollout

OXON: More than 4,600 businesses and homes are set to benefit from a £5.58 million superfast broadband scheme.

The money will see Oxfordshire County Council (OCC) and BT's Better Broadband for Oxfordshire expanded.

The funding, from Oxfordshire Local Enterprise Partnership (LEP), South East Midlands LEP, Cherwell District Council, OCC, the Government's Broadband Delivery UK programme and BT, was announced last Wednesday.

CCTV

OXFORD: A CCTV image was released last week of a man police would like to speak to about an assault in Oxford city centre on Sunday, September 20.

At around 1.30am two men left the Bell and Compass pub in New Road and were having a conversation when one elbowed the other in the face.

The man, in his fifties, was knocked back into a wall as a result of the blow.

The victim was taken to Oxford's John Radcliffe Hospital and was later discharged.

Competition

WIN tickets to see Harlequinade in London's West End

THE first season of the Kenneth Branagh Theatre Company is now open, starting with a unique Terence Rattigan double bill, as Zoë Wanamaker appears alongside Kenneth Branagh in the uproarious comic gem Harlequinade, following her performance of the powerfully atmospheric one-woman play, All On Her Own.

Harlequinade, Rattigan's backstage farce is a comic treat and focuses on the author's first love - the theatre. It pokes fun at a fictional acting company whose intrigues and dalliances are revealed with increasingly calamitous consequences.

In a dramatic contrast, All On Her Own is both heart-breaking and sinister. Wanamaker gives a tour de force performance as Rosemary, who is alone at midnight in London with a dangerous secret. Also starring Miranda Raison, Tom Bateman, John Shrapnel and Jessie Buckley.

Don't miss your chance to see this special Terence Rattigan double bill. Garrick Theatre, 2 Charing Cross

Closing date: Thursday, Dec 17

Road, London, WC2H 0HH
<http://www.branaghtheatre.com>

Win tickets!

We have 2 pairs of tickets to be won for the evening performance on Wednesday 6 January 2016. To enter answer the following question:

Q: At which London Theatre can you see Harlequinade? Shaftesbury, Garrick or London?

★★★★ 'This Terence Rattigan double bill is a sparkling opening to the season. Branagh is genuinely fantastic... a great comic' Time Out

★★★★★ 'Wanamaker is devastatingly good' Whatsonstage.com

★★★★ Evening Standard, The Independent, Guardian, Metro

To enter this competition and more like it, go online to www.oxfordshireguardian.co.uk

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Laughing Master: Stephen K Amos

GET set to leave Didcot's Cornerstone Arts Centre with sore sides after a night of comedy by Stephen K Amos on Saturday, December 5.

The award-winning comic arrives on his 'Laughing Master' tour.

And as the name suggests, Stephen has one mission.

"Ultimately, my main focus is that they've got to laugh," he said.

"The people who come to my shows are, generally speaking, the converted, so there's no point in me just telling them about race and politics and getting all this applause, that's just pointless.

"So I'm giving them the jokes and getting it down to a very basic level.

"Think back to Martin Luther King and his great speech about having a dream: I've always thought how the world might be a different place if the night before that speech, he had eaten some cheese.

"So, it's all about keeping it up and down, making a point, but keeping the laughter flowing."

Stephen was on his way to becoming a barrister before one night in New York changed his life.

A young lady he had met suggested his quick wit should be heard by a packed audience, rather than one or two.

By James Richings

Stephen's popularity grew, alongside his collection of comedy awards.

Now a familiar face in the comedy circuit here in the UK, Stephen is as busy off stage as he is on; working as a writer, presenter and actor as well as a comic.

"I've been doing this for a while now and I've got so many shows worth of material inside my head already that sometimes it's like a clown fight up there," he said.

"But every year I concentrate on one show and make sure I have it down before the premiere.

"I love doing a brand new show every year because it lets me travel all over the country and writing new material every year keeps those clowns busy.

"This job has enabled me to travel all over the world and for that I'm truly thankful."

Saturday's show will be the second time Stephen will have performed at the Cornerstone.

The show starts at 8pm and tickets cost £14.

It is suitable for over 18s.

20th Lights of Love

We would like to invite you to take part in our annual Lights of Love event. From Saturday, 12th December 2015, a Christmas Tree will glow with hundreds of tiny lights shining in memory of loved ones everywhere.

Messages will be attached to the lights, and the tree will be lit at a short service, and will shine all over the Christmas period. This year you can also add a message to our digital Lights of Love tree, on our website, where messages will shine as lights on the tree over Christmas.

If you would like to dedicate a light and take part in the Lights of Love appeal, please contact the Fundraising Office on 01865 857007 or mail@sobellhospice.org to request a pack, or visit our website www.sobellhouse.org

All donations received will go directly towards supporting the services offered by Sobell House to patients and their families

SOBELL HOUSE LIGHTS OF LOVE

Every Christmas, Sobell House Hospice has a giant Lights of Love Tree erected at the Churchill Hospital covered in lights in memory of loved ones who are no longer with us. This year, we will once again be holding a memorial service and lighting the tree, which will take place on Saturday 12th December at 3.30 pm. A short service will be held near to the tree and guests will have an opportunity to view the Books of Remembrance.

Hospice Fundraiser, Lindsay Manifold says 'This event is a major fundraiser for the Hospice, but it is also our opportunity to give some comfort to families who wish to remember a loved one over the Christmas period. We have many families who take part year after year, and we know it becomes part of their Christmas and helps them to feel they have kept their family members or friends in their thoughts'. Our supporter, Georgina said: 'Every year since my mother died I have come to the Lights of Love service. I love being here because I feel close to her and the service is simple and beautiful.'

There are usually over 1,000 messages on the tree, and the event last year raised over £26,000 to support the Hospice. The Lights of Love is open to everyone, not just for those who have lost someone at Sobell House, so anyone who wishes to take part, and have a light shining over the Christmas period, can contact the Sobell House Fundraising Office on 01865 857007 to find out more information, or visit our website www.sobellhouse.org

WHEN HEARING MATTERS

What's on | NEWS

So this is Christmas!

CHRISTMAS comes early to Oxford with action packed family fun show 'So This is Christmas!' on Sunday, December 6.

Starring former Hollyoaks actress Gemma Merna and '90s pop star Kavana, the New Theatre show arrives in George Street venue as part of a one-month tour across the UK to get the country into the Christmas spirit by performing some of the most popular

By James Richings

Christmas songs of all time.

And that is something Gemma, who played Carmel Valentine on the popular soap, is looking forward to.

"Everyone on the night can expect lots of fun, great songs and a feel-good festive show that they can join in with and sing-along to," the 31-year-old told the Guardian.

• Gemma Merna and Kavana

"If I had to choose my favourite Christmas song, it would be 'Merry Christmas Everyone', which was the UK Christmas Number One in 1985 and was a monster hit for Shakin' Stevens.

"Everyone can join in and have fun with this show!"

After making her Hollyoaks debut in 2006, Gemma became a regular face on TV staying on the Chester-based soap for eight years, before leaving the programme last November.

Guest appearances on shows such as 'Splash!', 'Virtually Famous' and a celebrity version of 'The Chase' have been keeping the performer busy for the past 12 months.

Joining her on stage will be Kavana, who achieved eight top 40 hits from 1996 to 1999.

"After so many years in Hollyoaks, this show is taking me back to my roots on stage and I just love it," Gemma added.

"The biggest challenge has probably been me getting the whole show in my brain.

"One of the best things about performing live is hearing applause and laughter - you can't beat it.

"When you've worked in TV for many years it's great to perform to real people rather than a camera lens."

The show starts at 7.30pm and tickets cost from £18.90 to £31.40.

• Riff Raff (left to right) Steve Painter, Steve Laurie and Nick Bevan

Beware of the Riff Raff

THREE-PIECE covers group Riff Raff will deal out classic rock and funky pop when they perform in Witney's New Inn on Saturday, December 5.

Consisting of Steve Painter (guitar and vocals), Steve Laurie (drums and vocals) and Nick Bevan (bass and vocals), the three friends are known for performing a wide range of hits from artists that you wouldn't usually name in the same sentence.

Guitarist Steve believes that's part of the reason they've found fans across the south.

"We might start the night off with some Deep Purple, Toto and Queen, but by the end we'll have covered Michael Jackson, Chic and Go West. That's why a lot of people seem to like us," Steve told the Guardian.

"Also, we've all been playing and gigging since we were teenagers.

"And it's true that, whatever grabs you at that age, stays with you for a long time. The shows we give are a reflection of what we love to do. It's all about the music."

A regular name in pubs where the group is from in Newbury, the three-some is making their way across the south of England to tie in more music enthusiasts as an audience to their energetic shows.

"Some people think we're an AC/DC tribute band because of their song of the same name - we're not," Steve joked.

"We've chosen to label ourselves as the underclass, the dregs.

"It doesn't pay to get be too arrogant in this business."

The free gig starts at 9pm.

Fotheringay folk is back

FOTHERINGAY will present a night of sophisticated folk music at Nettlebed Folk Club near Wallingford on Monday, December 7.

The group was originally set up by the late Sandy Denny in 1970, but Sandy, Trevor Lucas, Gerry Conway, Jerry Donahue and Pat Donaldson disbanded after a year when Sandy's solo career took off.

It gave a chance for each of them to enjoy success.

But in 2007, original member Jerry Donahue decided the time was right to revive Fotheringay and release new material.

In 2008 as the newly reformed band launched their first release in 38 years with an album called 'Fotheringay 2'.

"Everyone will be able to expect a wonderful revisit to a segment of Sandy Denny's music that's not been heard live for 45 years," Jerry told the Guardian.

"It feels good to know that we are playing music that our audiences enjoy and, of course, the enthusiastic responses we've been getting are most rewarding."

By James Richings

From the original line-up Jerry, Gerry and Pat are the only surviving members, with Kathryn Roberts (best known for working with folk musician Seth Lakeman) and PJ Wright adding in the extras as the new faces of the group stepping in for the late Sandy Denny and Trevor Lucas respectively.

And the current line-up has been bolstered with a sixth member in Sally Barker, who found fame by finishing joint second on TV talent show 'The Voice' last year.

She joined the group in the summer to form the Fotheringay set to take the stage in Nettlebed to kick-start next week.

The gig, in High Street, starts at 8pm and costs £20.

Jerry added: "When I came along to the first rehearsal at the start of 1970, I hadn't planned to join the group."

"I was already in a band I was very happy with but it took just one number (the very first one) to make me instantly change my mind."

• Fotheringay (from left) Jerry Donahue, Kathryn Roberts, Pat Donaldson, Sally Barker, PJ Wright and Gerry Conway

Rebel Without a Clue, the Jester's Tale

'Rebel Without a Clue, the Jester's Tale' by Roger Crawford, tells the story of how Roger became embroiled in the Family Court system in Oxford in a battle to see his only child, and lost, leading him to protest on various roofs and stand for election in 2010 with his trademark Court Jester outfit.

An entertaining journey through his life, with many laugh-out-loud moments which contrast with the pathos of losing all contact with his daughter and his advice for others who may be in a similar position.

Pull this Christmas Cracker! Isla says this book is a 'must read' and would make a great Christmas gift for anyone with a sense of humour. Available on Amazon at £8.99 and all good (and some not-so-good) bookshops.

DISCOVER A CAREER IN TEACHING

Teacher information evening Wednesday 6th January 2016, 6pm-8pm

Teacher information evening

The Trinity Partnership currently has excellent training opportunities for teaching, both in primary and secondary schools.

This evening is for anyone who is considering training to teach, including teaching assistants, career changers, teachers trained overseas, and those graduating in Summer 2016.

If you are interested in finding out more about getting into secondary/primary teaching, come along to meet current Schools Direct trainees and newly qualified teachers; plus talk with our specialist school mentors and University of Reading tutors who will be happy to answer your questions.

The evening will be mainly informal with some short presentations.

Training is provided in the Trinity Partnership schools, working together with the University of Reading. All courses lead to Qualified Teacher Status (QTS). You can also opt to do the PGCE course, which leads to 60 Masters credits. You may also be eligible for a salaried place or a bursary (up to £30k).

Come to our teaching information evening to find out more!

JANE EYRE
Almost 170 years on, Charlotte Brontë's story of the trailblazing Jane is as inspiring as ever. This bold and dynamic production uncovers one woman's fight for freedom and fulfilment on her own terms. From her beginnings as a destitute orphan, Jane Eyre's spirited heroine faces life's obstacles head-on, surviving poverty, injustice and the discovery of bitter betrayal before taking the ultimate decision to follow her heart. This acclaimed re-imagining of Brontë's masterpiece was first staged by Bristol Old Vic last year, when the story was performed over two evenings. Director Sally Cookson now brings her celebrated production to the National, presented as a single, exhilarating performance.

DEAR FATHER CHRISTMAS
Everything is going wrong for Father Christmas. The presents are all muddled up, a whole sack of letters has gone astray, the elves are in a panic and worst, Father Christmas' best friend, the North Pole Polar Bear, has gone missing! Back by popular demand, join us in Father Christmas' poot room where you can help save Christmas. With stories, songs and lots of activities to join in with, meet Ella the elf and the jolly man himself in this interactive adventure for young children and their families.

Oxford Playhouse, Oxford
SUNPOTS
Sunspots is a poetic, musical, and visual journey from the birth of the Sun, through its long and eventful life, towards its ultimate death. Is the Sun a god, a man, a woman, or simply a giant ball of hydrogen? Why does it tell fibs about its favourite painters? Is the Sun afraid of dying? Does it get depressed? And what does it really think about us? Simon Barraclough (poet in residence, Mullard Space Science Laboratory) is your guide on a journey that mixes fact, fiction, horror, humour and joy into an exciting and moving experience getting to know our friendly neighbourhood star.

Tue, Jan 12 - Wed, Jan 13
Oxford Playhouse, Oxford
ROVE
This new show from J. Fergus Evans (My Heart is Hitchhiking Down Peachtree Street) and Rhiannon Armstrong is for anyone who has ever tried to untangle a family anecdote, or wished they knew more about where they came from.

Tue, Jan 12 - Sat, Jan 16
New Theatre, Oxford
GANGSTA GRANNY
The world premiere of David Walliams' Gangsta Granny is coming to the stage in a national tour starting this winter and running throughout 2016. It is being staged by the Birmingham Stage Company, the acclaimed producers of Horrible Histories. It's Friday night and Ben knows that means only one thing - staying with Granny! There will be cabbage soup, cabbage pie and cabbage cake and Ben knows one thing for sure - it's going to be soooooo boring! But what Ben doesn't know is that Granny has a secret - and Friday nights are about to get more exciting than he could possibly imagine, as he embarks on the adventure of a lifetime with his very own Gangsta Granny!

Thu, Jan 14 - Fri Jan 15
Oxford Playhouse, Oxford
LEARNING HOW TO DIE
Learning How To Die asks what scares us about dying, and how can we use that fear to drive our living actions. Can we find new ways to talk about death? It won't make it any less painful but it might make things easier. This is a show about death. But don't let that put you off, it's not about being sad. Or about grief. Or pity. This is a show about how an acceptance of mortality can drive a passion for life.

Thu, Jan 14, 7.30pm
The Theatre, Chipping Norton
HOW TO CHANGE THE WORLD
In 1971, a group of friends sail into a nuclear test zone, and their protest captures the world's imagination. Using never before seen archive that brings their extraordinary world to life, How To Change The World is the story of the pioneers who founded Greenpeace and defined the modern green movement.

Fri, Jan 15, 8pm
Oxford Playhouse, Oxford
STEWART LEE
Back by popular demand, Stewart Lee returns to Oxford following previous sell-out visits with fresh material in preparation for his next BBC2 series of Stewart Lee's Comedy Vehicle. A BAFTA and Comedy Award-winning comedian and writer, in this hilarious show Stewart is on spectacularly funny form as he deftly tries out his brand new material. See it live now weeks ahead of transmission.

Scottish Car of the Year announced

THE new Vauxhall Astra made a bold statement by winning the Scottish Car of the Year Award on Friday.

It triumphed in three different categories: Family Car of the Year, Eco Car of the Year and overall Car of the Year.

The award was presented by the Association of Scottish Motoring Writers at the Marriott Dalmahoy Hotel in Edinburgh.

President of the Association of Scottish Motoring Writers, Alisdair Suttie, said: "2015 has been an amazing year for new cars which made the judges' decisions harder than ever, so credit to Vauxhall that it's new Astra won out."

"The Astra sets new standards with the way it drives, its efficiency and the quality of its construction and materials and not only is it a pleasure to drive, it's also a resounding endorsement of British workmanship."

The award ceremony was also a memorable night for Mazda.

The Japanese manufacturer also won a hat-trick of awards with the Mazda2 Supermini, MX-5 Drop Top and the CX-3 Crossover all winning their respective awards.

By James Richings

And Land Rover's new Ingenium engine helped the Land Rover Discovery Sport win the Diesel title.

It was also a good day for Jaguar - Land Rover's sister company - as the new XE saloon fought off fierce competition to win the Executive Car category.

Last year's overall winner Hyundai was back on stage in the Design and Innovation Award for its ix35 Hydrogen fuel cell car, while Volvo showed its prowess in the SUV category won by its XC90.

At the other end of the size scale, Audi TT's sleek design helped the car reach the top spot in the Coupé category.

While Honda Civic Type R impressed judges to win the Hot Hatch section of the awards.

The President's Award celebrating exceptional contributions in the car world went to Gordon and Jillian Shedden.

The couple, including 2015 British Touring Car Champion Gordon, have been recognised following their support to promote motorsport in Scotland.

Abingdon-on-Thames Town Council

Residents' Parking Wardens £16,969 to £18,376

(full time position; pro-rata for part-time position)

The Town Council are committed to delivering high quality, cost effective services for Abingdon, and act as agents for the County Council in operating the Residents' Parking Schemes in the town.

The Town Council is seeking to appoint two motivated and enthusiastic individuals as Residents' Parking Wardens, one being full-time and the other part-time (20 hrs/week). The Parking Wardens administer the town centre Residents' Parking Schemes in Abingdon town centre.

If appointed your duties will include enforcing the residents' parking regulations and administering all aspects of the scheme. The work involves frequent contact with the public and working outdoors. You will need to be customer-focussed, physically fit (it is estimated that 8 miles are walked during a full shift), flexible in your approach to work and be a competent administrator. A three week shift pattern is worked.

For further details and an application pack please call 01235 522642, e-mail enquiries@abingdon.gov.uk or visit the website www.abingdon.gov.uk

Should you wish to speak informally about the position you may call Mr Steve Rich, Assistant Town Clerk/ Head of Services, on 01235 522642.

Closing date Monday 21st December 2015 at 12 noon.

Oxford United to be top of table at Christmas?

COMMENT: There is an aura of destiny about Oxford United this season.

The club have somehow dragged themselves from a mid-table side that were unerringly close to the relegation zone last season to a side that could top the table at Christmas.

Michael Appleton took the reins last July and a year and a half later, the situation could not be more different.

When the former-Preston midfielder took over from Gary Waddock, United began last season with four consecutive defeats.

It's a different outlook this season all together with the club only losing twice in 32 games in a run that stretches back to the end of last season.

There's vibrancy with the player's movement and a dialogue with how the U's move the ball that reeks of confidence.

Whether it's Appleton firing the boys up in the changing rooms and on the training pitch or if the confidence is naturally growing as the season goes on, there is a tangible sense of hope amongst United fans.

By Loughlan Campbell

The stands are electric at times and whenever Kemar Roofe, Callum O'Dowda or Danny Hylton gets on the ball, an aura of expectancy dazes over the Grenoble Road crowd.

They want goals and Oxford have delivered in spades so far this season scoring 31 goals, with Kemar Roofe and Liam Sercombe becoming linchpins in the side, scoring eight and seven goals apiece.

Up front, it hasn't been as prolific, but Patrick Hoban has slowly weaved his way into form with a couple of goals and winger Alex MacDonald continues to be a rampant menace to defenders down the wing.

The only thing that will worry United fans is the depth of the squad.

Can this team hold on until May and go without any injuries to its key players will be the defining question of Appleton's second season in charge.

With Jake Wright expected to be back in the squad for Forest Green Rovers in the FA Cup Second Round tie, United's defence will have some toughening up, but its fragility has to be rectified by Appleton in January for it to no longer remain a concern for Appleton and for the fans.

Forest Green are an ambitious side that are pushing to get back into the Football League at the top of the National Conference.

Any slip-up's would be sure to cut at the pride of the pumped up Yellow's, however, just one more win for the U's and they could have a big Premier League side heading out on to the Kassam Stadium pitch in the New Year, which would give United fans maybe one more reason to have something to shout about.

Richmond test Blues ahead of varsity game

AHEAD of Oxford University RFC's varsity game against Cambridge next Thursday they failed to beat a strong Richmond side at Iffley Road on Sunday.

Richmond were first over the line after just three minutes with Jamie Thompson crashing over after a sustained period of pressure on the Oxford backs.

Full-back Tom Platt hit the post with the conversion before Oxford hit back straight away after a chip from George Cullen that he managed to chase down.

He failed his conversion and 15 minutes later, Thompson grabbed his second of the afternoon for Richmond.

Platt added the extras and was then instrumental in the third try as he charged down a clearing kick and Jamie Gibbs pounced on to score out wide.

After the interval, Thompson completed his hat-trick from another catch and drive but Platt couldn't convert.

Oxford then hit two tries in the final quarter with Jacob Goss going over and then Basil Strang crossed over for the Blues and added the extras himself.

The Blues are set to face Cambridge at Twickenham on December 10.

Millers suffer title blow in another defeat for Gee's side

NORTH Leigh fell to fifth in the table following their 2-1 defeat to promotion challengers Evesham United at Eynsham Park on Saturday.

The result means it's four games without a win for the Millers who have now lost two games on the spin.

Evesham started well and James Foster had to make a brilliant save from Clayton Green in the first few minutes.

Adam Mann then went narrowly close for United with the Millers really struggling to get back into the game.

The opener came on 10 minutes after Lance Smith headed past Foster from a corner.

Leigh were then fortunate with their goal, which came on 17 minutes after Morgan Williams' shot was deflected off skipper Matt Sysum's foot and it trickled into the net.

Elliot Osborn-Ricketts was then subbed off for Jon Else at half time and Evesham responded with grabbing their second goal on the hour mark.

Lance Smith played the ball into Mann on the right edge of the box, who hit his shot from 8 yards past Foster.

Leigh battled to find themselves a way back into the game but had to settle for the defeat as they strive to rectify their alarming slip in form.

Hylton the man as United climb to top

DANNY Hylton's second half goal sent Oxford United top of League Two on Saturday in an enticing tussle at Hartlepool United.

The entertaining encounter was fast and furious in the first half with debutant Chris Maguire making an impression for the U's.

The 25-year-old on loan Rotherham forward had a shot from 25 yards deflected wide and was a constant threat to Hartlepool's defence throughout the afternoon.

The home side's Nicky Featherstone thumped wide of Benji Buchel, who continued his stint in goal, on 16 minutes before Jake Gray fired wide of the bar shortly afterwards.

Alex MacDonald drilled a shot low into the side netting a minute later and Liam Sercombe nearly gave United the lead after he barged into the box and got a foot to Patrick Hoban's effort.

Buchel then had to dive down deep to prevent a Rhys Oates header from sneaking into the net for a goalless score at the interval.

By Loughlan Campbell

Maguire then tested Trevor Carson early on in the second half with a thumping effort before Hartlepool's Mikael Mandron was denied after Buchel rushed out to block the effort away.

United then roared into life with Hoban dragging an effort wide of the right hand post on 65 minutes before MacDonald fired a free kick at the wall on 68 minutes.

Just two minutes later, Hylton got the ball in the net after the U's countered from a Hartlepool corner and MacDonald clipped the ball in to Hylton who had come on for Maguire to plant the ball past Carson.

Liam Sercombe then went close on with ten minutes remaining as Carson managed to get hands to the effort to turn it around the post.

In the end United managed to hold on to lift themselves top of the table for the first time this season, five points clear of the play-off places, with the U's on 40 points.

City survive FA Trophy scare

A BRACE from Marlon Jackson helped Oxford City come from behind to beat Marlow 6-3 in the third qualifying round of the FA Trophy on Saturday.

Marlow, of the Southern League Division One South and West were fired up for the clash and twice took the lead in the contest.

Marcus Mealing stunned the home support on three minutes after he put the away side in front before Bradley Bubb equalised on 19 minutes with a 30-yard effort.

City then moved to cool fans' fears with Reece Fleet grabbing on to a Luke Coulson cross to give them the lead.

However, Marlow soon struck back when Jordace Holder-Spooner equalised just before half-time.

The visitors then went in front for the second time with Mealing slotting in his second of the day past Laurie Walker.

Jackson was then brought on and Kynan Isaac's long-range effort then levelled up the score on the hour mark.

Following their equaliser, the Blues took control of the game and Jackson made it 4-3 four minutes later, with Bubb adding a fifth on 76 minutes.

Six minutes from time saw Oxford polish the game off as Jackson slotted in to wrap up the scoring for the afternoon.

• Felix Sissins-Roffey showing off his medals

Golden boy Felix takes home nine medals

ABINGDON Vale Swimming Club (AVSC) have plenty to be proud of after a strong showing at the Aquae Sulis Grand Prix in Bristol on November 21 and 22, with 10-year-old Felix Sissins-Roffey scooping nine gold medals.

The grand prix held in Hengrove Park pool saw 22 swimmers from the Abingdon club compete with national qualifying times from two swimmers to complement Sissins-Roffey's wins.

Sissins-Roffey also cemented his position as second fastest 10-year-old in Britain this year after swimming the 50metre Freestyle in 29.79 seconds.

The time also saw him placed as 6th fastest of all time for his age.

The future is bright for the young star who currently holds club records in all 12 events he has competed in for the 10 and under age group.

Yasmin Tajalli, 14, qualified for the 50m Freestyle with a time of 27.20 seconds and setting an AVSC club record.

Will DeVetta, 15, set his own club record in the 50m Fly with a time of 27.11 seconds, achieving a national qualifying time.

Didcot coach picks up prestigious award

DIDCOT Netball Club's coach Julie McDermaid picked up the award for 'Coach of the Year' at the 10th Oxfordshire Sports Awards on Thursday.

Julie was nominated by fellow players and friends at the club in which she has guided one of the club's adult teams to a promotion this season in the Oxfordshire Netball League.

In addition to training three adult teams and four junior teams, Julie also helps out with primary school netball teams in after school classes.

She is responsible for the coaching and training of 30 netballers who play at the club.

Her friend, Mandy Blair, said: "Julie's passion and commitment to the club has been second to none. She has been an inspiration to many and is a major contributor to the success of the club."

"She has a great relationship with every member of the club and pushes us hard, ensuring we have a lot fun along the way."

Julie previously won the Grassroots Coach Award in the Netball South Regional Golden Globe Awards of 2015.

The Oxfordshire Sports Awards is an annual event by Oxfordshire Sport & Physical Activity and this year's event was held at the Kassam Stadium in Grenoble Road.

Late goal defeat

HOCKEY: Oxford Hockey Club's ladies 1st team were defeated 2-1 by Brighton in a close contest in which they conceded through a last-minute penalty corner.

The 2nd team were on form with the squad beating Sonning 1-0 in a difficult game with Meg Scott grabbing the goal.

Meanwhile, the men's 1st team were unable to handle Wycombe who won the contest 3-0.

Non-league round-up

FOOTBALL: Kidlington were unluckily defeated 4-3 at home by Flackwell Heath in the third round of the Perpetua Press Floodlit Cup 3rd round on Tuesday.

In the Hellenic League Premier, Ardley United were defeated 1-0 at Ascot United.

However, Milton United ran riot at the Heights in a 5-0 win over basement boys Wokingham & Emmbrook on Saturday.

Double drubbings

ICE HOCKEY: Oxford City Stars were comprehensively dismantled over the weekend in two drubbings in the NIHL South Division 1.

First up on Saturday, they were defeated 7-4 by the London Raiders in a trip down to London.

A day later, they entertained Streatham Redskins at Oxpens

Second win for Wantage boss

IT was two wins in two for Stuart Cattell's Wantage Town side after they held on to beat Slimbridge 2-1 on Saturday.

In wintry conditions, the two sides faced off and Cattell's side got off to the best possible start with star forward Ben Whitehead striking the ball home from outside the box on two minutes.

The Swans looked to hit back and could have found an equaliser with four attempts blasted at the Freds' goal in the space of 15 minutes.

The woodwork was struck twice in that period before both teams just looked to keep hold of the ball.

The second goal for the Freds came in miraculous circumstances as Whitehead's corner was guided into the far corner of the net.

The conditions became tricky and although Wantage had a fair share of luck in the scoring of their second goal, they had no luck towards the end of the second half as the Swans grabbed a penalty in the 89th minute.

The ball sailed into the net but Wantage managed to hold on to secure their second consecutive win.

Two points for the Frenchman as he bids farewell to Lotus Grosjean ends his year on a high note ROMAIN Grosjean stormed through the field from the back of the grid to pick up two points in his final race for Enstone-based Lotus F1 at Sunday's Abu Dhabi Grand Prix.

A gearbox problem meant that Grosjean was unable to set a time in the second part of qualifying, with the resultant penalty for changing the gearbox putting him 18th on the grid. He was up to 15th by the end of lap one, and progressed up the order further on a different tyre strategy as those ahead of him made pitstops.

The Frenchman came out in 11th after his final stop, and overtook Carlos Sainz and Daniil Kvyat in the closing stages to end the day ninth.

"It's been an emotional journey for me and I'm so happy to be able to reward everyone at Enstone with points in my final race for the team," said Grosjean.

"I had to push all the way and it wasn't always plain sailing as there was a lot to manage on the car, but the calls from the pit wall were great and my pitstops were fantastic.

"I owe a lot to this team and it really feels like a family to me, and I hope to be back one day in the future. This has been the best season of my career."

By Adam Flinn

But the race was over at the first corner for Grosjean's teammate Pastor Maldonado, after he was taken out by Fernando Alonso.

Alonso's McLaren and the Sauber of Felipe Nasr collided in the run to the first corner, causing Alonso to spear into the side of innocent bystander Maldonado.

The Lotus driver did try to get going, but the suspension damage proved too great and he was forced out.

"It's sad to end the race in the first corner because we were looking good for the race," said Maldonado.

"We had a good strategy to go with our better race pace, but anyway this is racing and it can happen.

"I didn't see the contact, I just felt it in the back of the car from Fernando and I tried to restart, but then I saw the suspension damage."

Lotus ended the season sixth in the constructors' championship standings with 78 points, with Grosjean 11th in the drivers' table with 51 and Maldonado 14th on 27.

Grosjean will race for Haas F1 next season.
